

announce

POLAROUND

INTERNATIONAL INSTANT WEEKEND

Competition regulations

Point 1

Organizers

The Photographic Association Officina Istantanea and Doctor Photo announce the photographic competition Polaround - International Instant Weekend.

Point 2

Aim of the competition

The competition aims to give prizes for the best photos on each subject presented during the eight (8) hours of the marathon and the main prize to the person who develops best all of the eight set subject. There will be other additional prizes.

Point 3

Principles of the competition

The Polaround – International Instant Weekend competition will be carried out as a photographic marathon. At the end of the competition only photographs with instant development (integral films IMPOSSIBLE, Polaroid, Fuji; peel-apart Polaroid e Fuji) will be considered valid and those taken during the available time of the competition. The organization relies on the good faith of the participants.

Every participant will be allowed eight (8) hours to produce eight (8) photos on the (8) set subjects.

Only one photograph per subject is allowed.

Participation in the competition is dependent on the presenting of the shots produced.

Point 4

Participation

Taking part in the competition is open to all adults or people under 18 if accompanied by parents for the whole duration of the event. Enrolments are only valid if they are made personally (and for under 18s if accompanied by parents).

It is not necessary to take part in all the subjects, to be admitted to the final judging; you can also take part with single objects. The most important prize however will be presented to the person who best develops all eight (8) of the set subjects.

Point 5

Pre-enrolment and enrolment

Pre-enrolments can be done by sending a email to info@doctorphoto.net with the heading 'Pre-enrolment POLAROUND' giving details of name, surname email address and telephone number

Finally to ensure there are enough films available for everyone, indicate when pre-enrolling if you will be using your own films in the competition or are intending to buy them there at the last moment. In the latter case give details of type and quantity required; only IMPOSSIBLE films will be available.

Pre-enrolments close Monday 16 April.

Competition regulations // Polaround - International Instant Weekend

Actual enrolments are done by going personally to the shop Doctor Photo – Via Polonio 1/a – Trieste. It will be possible to enrol on the actual days of the marathon from 9.00 until the start of the competition. The availability of films cannot be guaranteed unless you have pre-enrolled by the pre-enrolment date.

Point 6

Participation fees

To enrol for the photographic competition you must pay the amount of enrolment fee.

The fees for taking part are as follows:

- 5.00 euro for members of Officina Istantanea and for people under 18 years of age accompanied by a parent,
- 10.00 euro for non-members (fee includes a year's subscription for 2012 to Associazione Officina Istantanea).

The cost of films and photographic equipment is not included in the participation fee.

Point 7

Refunds

Under no circumstances will the organizers refund the enrolment fee.

Point 8

Equipment

Every participant must provide his own photographic equipment, camera and films. To guarantee that the procedure of the jury is carried out in the correct way with the prize giving in view the make of the films must not be displayed in any way or rendered recognizable.

The organizers will have available some Polaroid cameras for those not in possession of one who specify this in the email for pre-enrolment and would like to be acquainted with the instant photo. The availability of cameras cannot be guaranteed for all the requests.

Point 9

Date and place of the competition

The competition will take place in Trieste on Saturday 21 April from 11.00 to 19.00.

The point of departure of the marathon will be Doctor Photo – Via Polonio 1/a – Trieste.

The organizers have the right to change the point of departure where you pick up the list of subjects to develop should it be necessary because of too large a number of participants.

On Sunday 22 April the prize giving will take place and the exhibition of the prize winning photos will be inaugurated.

Point 10

Consignment of the photo entries

Consignment of photo entries will be at Doctor Photo – Via Polonio 1/a – Trieste, from 19.00 to 19.30, or earlier for anyone who finds it necessary.

The organizers have the right to change the point of consignment should it be necessary because of too large a number of participants.

Point 11

The responsibility at the participants and the organizers

The participants are responsible for the photos they take; if a signature of acquittance is necessary, they must arrange it themselves to their satisfaction. The participants should be aware that their photos/picture are protected by the right of ownership and it is necessary to obtain the permission of the owner of the rights.

The management is not responsible for the behaviour of the participants. The event takes place in the city centre; therefore the participants are expected to behave in a reasonable and responsible manner and avoid causing any disturbance of normal street movement and city life.

The management reserves the right to cancel or postpone the marathon in the case of any violent disturbance/excessive force.

Point 12

Returning of the photos

It is duty of the organizers to return the photos. The photos will be returned as they were given for the participation in the competition without any actual frames used for display in the exhibition. The winners will be notified by telematic means or by phone for the return of the photos and will be asked to provide an address to send them back to. For anyone who does not provide any address or if it proves impossible to contact the winners, their photos will be dealt with accordingly and will go into the archives of Association Officina Istantanea.

The management will not be hold responsible for the eventual loss of photos.

For non prize winners however it will be possible to pick up their photos on the day of the prize giving or at Doctor Photo – Via Polonio 1/a – Trieste during opening hours within 3 months from the date of the marathon. Should such photos not to be collected within that time, they will be dealt with accordingly and will go into archives of Association Officina Istantanea.

Point 13

Intellectual property of the photos and handling of works

All participants have the full right of ownership and use of the photos made for the event of the competitions according to code of intellectual property. The participants agree to use of their photographic pictures for display and promotion for future initiatives of the organizers. The photos used will clearly indicate the name of photographer but without any commercial value only the right of the author. The management will not be held responsible for eventual theft or damage of the works during the period of the exhibition.

Point 14

Jury

The judgment of the jury is final and cannot be challenged. The jury can decide not to offer all the prizes. The jury furthermore reserves the right to mention worthy works.

Point 15

Prizes

The prizes for the winners will be offered by the management and sponsor of the event. The management will not offer any money prizes. The prizes cannot be converted into money or substituted by any other types of goods or services. The results will be communicated and made public and winners will be advised by telematic means or by phone. The prizes can be claimed on the day of the or in the three months following in the way and at the places detailed by the management and always notifying the winners. There will be no notification by post.

The management are offering the following prizes:

- One (1) First Prizes overall for the best development of all eight subjects, Polaround Prize – One (1) instant camera Polaroid P 600 and one IMPOSSIBLE starter kit including one (1) Limited PX Gold Edition Set, one (1) PX600 UV+, one (1) PX680, one (1) Dry Age kit, one (1) frog tongue, one (1) film storage box twin pack,
- Eight (8) Prizes for the category's best shots on set subjects, Well done! Prize – One (1) IMPOSSIBLE PX680 and one (1) IMPOSSIBLE PX600 UV+ for the winners of each subject,
- One (1) Critics Prize, Le vie delle foto Prize – guaranteed participation to the 'Le vie delle foto' for the year 2012,
- One (1) Consolation Prize, Try it again! Prize – one (1) Polaroid Square Shooter 2 and a token valid for the next Polaround competition.

INFORMATION AND AGREEMENT ON THE HANDLING OF PERSONAL DATA

With reference to Article 13 D.lgs. 196/2003 relative to the personal details supplied to the association Officina Istantanea e Doctor Photo (from now referred as the organizers) for the competition Polaround the relevant information is as follows:

a) Information details received. The personal details by the organizers are only those supplied by the person completing the registration form for the competition.

b) Completion procedure. The personal details both common and private are used for the records and registration, accountancy and administrative, for the completion of the contract according to the regulations and the relevant common legal procedure. The contracts of the participants are made strictly according to legal procedure and control and transfer of the material while being used by Association Officina Istantanea or on their premises is as required by statutory obligations. In particular the personal details supplied by the people who made the contract of the photographic culture may be used for:

- for interest in any future activity or in initiative of the association,
- for interest in the next editions of Polaround of interest of the material of a communicative or interactive nature.

The personal details will be handled and kept by the organizers as legally required until the end of the aforementioned event and for any future occurrence unless the express interests of the participant state otherwise

c) Handling procedure. Any handling action or actions are fulfilled in accordance with article 4 comma 1° D.lgs 196/2003 using manual or computer method; the details supplied may be kept on magnetic or paper material as required by legal safety. The personal details supplied may be handled for the previously mentioned event also using SMS and/or other computerized methods as automatic transmission or communication.

The organizer must not make any inaccuracies in the personal details or until any inaccuracy has been corrected.

d) Giving details. The participant is at liberty to give what details he wishes but must supply the information necessary in accordance with regulations and statutory requirement.

e) Refusing to give personal details. Refusing to give personal details renders it impossible to take part in POLAROUND.

f) Rights of the interested person. Art. 7 D.lgs 196/2003 gives the participant the right:

- to obtain information about the origin of the personal details
- to obtain information as to the purpose and procedure of the service
- to obtain information in how the service may be effected by use of electronic instruments
- to obtain information of subjects to which the personal details can be communicated or conveyed by a representative who has given the charge of responsibility
- to obtain updates or corrections which may need to be added to the details
- to obtain a cancellation, an anonymous transformation stopping the use of data for a violation of the law, including cases where the aims are not the same as those for which the data was collected and subsequently used
- to obtain a statement in the case of events described in the two previous paragraphs coming to light even if the contest and their details have been made known except in the case that such procedure becomes impossible or out of proportion because of the right of tutelage.
- to oppose completely or in part for legitimate reasons the use of the personal data even if the purpose of their collection was relevant.
- to oppose the use of personal data to be used in published material or promotional purposes.

The details supplied can be verified on request from the Association Officina Istantanea and/or Doctor Photo, and can be updated and/or corrected by means of letter or email sent to info@officinaistantanea.com using the same means you can ask for the personal details to be cancelled.

In the case of cancellation request of personal details supplied made to the organizers, no further advice or communication is required. Such a cancellation in the case of cancelling of details and reports, will take immediate effect.

With reference to the above mentioned legal act the procedure of personal details is carried out by the Association Officina Istantanea and Doctor Photo and with reference to the art. 13 D.lgs 30 June 2003 n.196.

I agree to

- 1) Procedure according to the law of personal details, both public and private that concerns me for the purposes indicated in paragraphs b) and c)
- 2) To receive published material and relevant communications for any event, activity and or promoted service and positions at Officina Istantanea and Doctor Photo sent me by automated means without the use of operator and by email, SMS etc and for this event or for any following initiatives, even if I should oppose such use afterwards.